About the York County Library Bookmobile

The Bookmobile, funded and operated by York County Library, serves communities and rural areas in York County, S.C. Library cards are free and are issued on the Bookmobile. You must have a York County Library card present to check out items from the Bookmobile. Materials include: new adult fiction and non-fiction books; large print books; children's fiction and non-fiction books; audio CDs; adult and children's magazines, and DVDs.

Materials are on loan for two weeks. Books may be returned to the Bookmobile or to any York County Library. Requests for specific books or subject areas are welcome. Children's programs are offered on a limited basis. To request a program, call 803-981-5841. Service will not be offered on York County Library holidays and may be suspended when mechanical failures occur. Service will not be offered July 4 and August 28–September 1. York County Library does not discriminate in its services or programs. For ADA accommodations, call 803-981-5835.
