

Photo/Video Consent Notice

The York County Library reserves the right to photograph or record patrons for promotional purposes, in print and online, at the library or during library events. All library patrons consent to the use of their photo and/or video for such purposes, without compensation. No names will be used in conjunction with photos or recordings without express consent. Notify library staff if you do not want to be photographed or recorded.